RETIREMENT OF EVANS

Rear Admiral May Request He Be Relieved

WHEN HE GETS TO FRISCO

As to Who Will Be His Successor There Is Considerable Speculation Among Naval Officers, Many Naming Uriel Sebree.

New York, Oct. 11.—Naval officers believe that as soon as Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, has piloted the sixteen battleships under his command safely on his forthcoming voyage from Atlantic waters to San Francisco, he will ask to be relieved of his command, says the Times. In the regular course of events he will retire from active duty in August of next year and his associates say it is natural for the admiral to desire a few leisure months prior to severing active connection with the service.

REAR ADMIRAL EVANS.

As to Admiral Evans' successor there is already much speculation. There are many naval officers who believe the plum will fall to Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree, who, when the fleet arrives at San Francisco, will be the commander of the second division, and who will not reach retirement age until 1910.

IMPORTANT DEAL.

Includes the Acquisition of Big Tabasco Sauce Enterprise.

New York, Oct. 11.—The announcement has been made of an important deal, combination or merger of some southern packing and canning interests that has just been completed through George A. Young and associates. The deal involves the acquisition of the E. McIlhenny company's Tabasco sauce business, E. McIlhenny & Sons' canning and packing business and the McIlhenny Canning and Manufacturing company, which is said to operate one of the largest modern canneries in the United States.

It is understood such southern banking interests as the United States Trust company, Washington and Hibernia bank and Trust company and Canal Second Louisiana Bank and Trust company of New Orleans are behind the promoters of the new enterprise. The capitalization of the new company will be $10,000,000. E. McIlhenny will be president and Frederick Kopf vice president.

"HERE SHE COMES!"

Throng Surged Toward Track, One Killed and Two Hurt.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 11.—A westbound Pennsylvania fast train No. 19 plowed into a crowd of people at Bourbon station, killing Tom Sloan, a Warsaw saloonkeeper, and seriously injuring several other persons. At the time of the accident 1,000 persons were standing on the platform awaiting the eastbound passenger train. Somebody yelled, "Here she comes!" The mass of humanity surged toward the track, several persons being thrown in front of the locomotive. The injured are Frank Miller of Plymouth, who had a hand amputated, and George Rada, a hand mangled and internal injuries.

MARS INHABITED.

This Is the Opinion That Professor Todd Has Arrived At.

Panama, Oct. 11.—Professor David Todd, who spent four months in Chile with the expedition sent from the United States to observe Mars, arrived here on his way home. In commenting on the observations, Professor Todd said: "It is reasonably certain that Mars has been inhabited in the past and it is reasonably certain it is inhabited now."

MRS. CHADWICK IS DEAD

Passes Peacefully Away in the Ohio Penitentiary.

SON ARRIVES TOO LATE.

Report Was in Circulation That the Departed Woman Had Told of Her Various Financial Transactions, but This Is Denied.

Columbus, O., Oct. 11.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, whose amazing financial transactions culminated in the wrecking of an Oberlin bank, died in the woman's ward at the Ohio state penitentiary at 10 o'clock Thursday night. Mrs. Chadwick had been in a comatose condition for some hours previous to her death, and the end came peacefully. No friends or relatives were at her bedside; only a few prison attendants. Her son, Emil Hoover, had been summoned from Cleveland, but arrived fifteen minutes after his mother had breathed her last.

Mrs. Chadwick's body was removed to a local undertaking establishment and prepared for burial at Cleveland.

Mrs. Chadwick embraced the Roman Catholic faith, and was baptized a few days before her death. Thursday morning she received the last anointment.

It was reported that Mrs. Chadwick had made a statement regarding her various financial transactions, and it was expected that if such a statement had been made it would be given to the public after her death. The prison officials declared that she had never made any statement so far as they were aware, and T. E. Powell, her attorney here, also declared she had never made any statement to his knowledge.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Bigely, was a native of Woodstock, Canada. She first came into public notice at Toledo, O., about twenty years ago where she told fortunes under the name of Madame De Vere. While in this city she forged the name of Richard Brown of Youngstown, O., and for this crime was sent to the penitentiary at Columbus for nine years. She served but a portion of her sentence, and then located at Cleveland, where she married a man named Hoover. Her second husband was Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick of Cleveland, a man of good family and excellent standing in his profession.

In the latter part of 1902, or early in 1903, Mrs. Chadwick, in the presence of her husband, gave to Ira Reynolds, the cashier of the Wade Park bank of Cleveland, a box containing notes signed with the name of Andrew Carnegie. These forged notes are alleged to have amounted to $7,500,000. Reynolds gave to Mrs. Chadwick a receipt for the papers, which described the notes and the signatures upon them. Mrs. Chadwick left with Reynolds as an explanation of the existence of the note the statement that she was a natural daughter of Carnegie.

With the receipt of Reynolds in her possession Mrs. Chadwick went to different banks and many capitalists making loans, and paying not only high interest to the banks, but heavy bonuses to the bank officials who loaned her money. The extent of these transactions will never be fully known, but they run up into the millions. They involved men of high standing in the financial world and caused heavy losses to many banks.

In November, 1904, she was sued by a man named Newton of Brookline, Mass., from whom she had borrowed a large amount, which she was unable to pay. Other creditors came down upon her, and within a short time she was placed under arrest by the Federal authorities on the charge of conspiring with Charles Beckwith, the president, and A. B. Spear of a national bank at Oberlin, O., which had been substantially looted. Mrs. Chadwick had obtained from this institution such large sums of money that it was compelled to close its doors, causing heavy losses to the depositors, and ruining many of them.

Mrs. Chadwick, Beckwith and Spear were indicted for a variety of offenses against the national banking laws. Beckwith died before coming to trial. Spear pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary, and is now serving time at Columbus, O. Mrs. Chadwick was brought to trial on March 6, 1905, and after a hearing which lasted two weeks, was found guilty of conspiracy to defraud a national bank, and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

She Committed Suicide.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The body of the woman found in the Chicago river was identified as that of Miss Jennie L. Stevens, an organist. Coroner's Physician Rynhart declared that Miss Stevens unquestionably committed suicide. She was a warm personal friend of Mrs. Hollister, for whose murder Richard Ivins was hanged several months ago, and has brooded almost constantly over Mrs. Hollister's death.

Intoxicants Seized.

ORGAN RECITAL LAST NIGHT.

Prof. Case of Sherman Assisted by Local Talent—A Supurb Instrument.

The organ recital at the First Methodist church last night, by Prof. Geo. E. Case of the North Texas Female College conservatory of music, assisted by local talent, was a rare musical treat, one of the best ever afforded the people of Bryan. It was the first opportunity the public has had for hearing the magnificent new Hook-Hastings pipe organ just installed at a cost of $3500.00. The superb instrument was in the hands of a master, and the excellent and varied program, which was published in the Eagle yesterday, evidenced his musicianly ability and the superior qualities of the organ. Prof. Case's vocal selection was received with much favor as were also the numbers by Mrs. S. Spell and Miss Willie Rogers. Miss Long played the accompaniments and proved herself an organist of fine ability. A large and appreciative audience was present. This instrument was designed expressly for its present position, to harmonize with the architecture of the church. It is of most perfect workmanship and material; its voicing artistic, the work of a master. In mechanical construction it is most modern and complete. There are numerous combination pedals, a "Grand Crescendo Pedal" for the full organ and tilting tablets that operate various couplers. The ingenuity of its mechanical accessories make possible the finest shading of tone color and an infinite variety of combinations. The Hook-Hastings Co's Perfect Pneumatic Action is used and is applied to each manual, to the pedal and to the stops and combinations. There are in all sixteen stops or sets of speaking pipes, some very costly and of great range of power and variety. Each stop has its characteristics, varying in quality and tone as an orchestra—flutes, strings, reeds and the true organ tone, sober, impressive and devotional. The foundation stops are rich, round and full, the softer registers exquisite in their delicacy, the reed stop has that rare quality for which the makers are famed and all are most beautifully blended in a grand, powerful and harmonious whole.

Ruling Sustained.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 11.—In the United States court here Judge Pritchard rendered his decision sustaining the ruling of Standing Master Montgomery in refusing to allow the state's attorneys in the railway rate case hearing to investigate the books of the Southern railway prior to June 30, 1905. The court says that the exceptions to the ruling of the standing master are without merit, and were therefore overruled.

Not Wilkins' Body.

Minneapolis, Oct. 11.—The police of this city concluded that the body found in the river Tuesday is not that of F. D. Wilkins of Enid, Okla., and that the identification made by a hotel proprietor was a mistake. Friends of Wilkins viewed the body and said it was not Wilkins. The latter's whereabouts are unknown.

Could Not Face Them.

Memphis, Oct. 11.—Rather than face his wife and mother after a deputy sheriff had arrested him for failing to appear in criminal court to answer to charges of larceny and fraudulent breach of trust, John League, twenty-three years old, shot and killed himself after being allowed by the deputy to go to another room to change his clothes.

Hacked to Pieces.

Tiflis, Oct. 11.—The body of Prince Tzeretoli, a cousin of Prince I. G. Tzeretoli, member of the late duma from Kutais, was found hacked to pieces in the suburbs of Gori. The police have evidence that the crime was committed by peasants.

CAMPBELL AND COCKE.

Former Praises Legislature, Latter Scores Bailey.

Meridian, Tex., Oct. 11.—Governor Campbell got out of a bright red automobile Thursday at the Bosque County fair, mounted the platform and delivered an address. The governor praised the work of the Thirtieth legislature and his utterances were often applauded. During his speech, when he declared that he would bring Pierce back to Texas, there were shouts of "Tell us about Bailey," but as the governor halted, another one said: "No leave it to the other fellow," meaning Mr. Cocke. Still a few insisted upon hearing about "Joe," whereupon Gov. Campbell asked what he was running for, and the incident closed good-naturedly. In praising the Thirtieth legislature the governor admonished his hearers to be watchful lest selfish interests should succeed in stocking the next legislature, and specifically to guard against the election of trust and railroad lawyers. He acknowledged that some railway lawyers in the legislature had kept faith with the people, but said they were too scarce to fool with. At the courthouse Representative W. A. Cocke of Bexar county spoke on "Ballotism vs. Patriotism." In referring to Mr. Bailey's re-election as senator, Mr. Cocke said the former had gotten most of the members pledged to him before the real charges came out, otherwise he would not have been elected. Mr. Cocke said he was making a collection of the "fool things" said by Bailey, beginning with the assertion: "This senator is known in every hamlet in America." There is some difference between notoriety and reputation, Mr. Cock remarked. Bailey, he declared, had done more to debauch the Democratic party in this state and nation than any other twelve men. Mr. Cocke read a list of Mr. Bailey's property transactions since his election as senator, discussed his transactions with Pierce, and in conclusion, declared that Texans were entitled to vote as to whether Bailey should resign. He did not wonder that Bailey should oppose Bryan's referendum proposition and the recall.

PIONEER METHODIST GONE

After Long Service For Master Rev. J. W. Chalk Dies.

Pilot Point, Tex., Oct. 11.—At his home in this city, after a short illness, Rev. J. W. Chalk, one of the pioneer ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, died Thursday afternoon. Born Feb. 25, 1826, Rev. Mr. Chalk came to Texas in 1851. He served throughout the Mexican war in a Tennessee company. In 1854 he organized the first Methodist church in the city of Fort Worth, then a village. Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hill of Dallas were at the bedside of Mrs. Chalk when the end came. Mrs. Hill is a daughter of Rev. Chalk. Dr. Hill is pastor of the First Methodist church at Dallas.

SAN ANTONIO'S MYSTERY.

Young Man Found With Head Nearly Beaten to a Pulp.

San Antonio, Oct. 11.—San Antonio has another mystery similar in some respects to the recent McMickle case. This body of a well-dressed young man, about twenty-five years of age, was found on the roadside about seven miles southwest of the city. His head was battered almost to a pulp. The physicians stated that he could not live but a few hours, and that he would never regain consciousness. There were no papers, letters or other data on his person which would lead to his identification. A short distance from where the young man was found were number of empty quart beer bottles. The officers believe that he was probably struck by his companion when both men were under the influence of liquor. A man was said to have driven away from where the body was early this morning. He was in a buggy and his face was badly scratched. The officers hope to locate this party and clear up the mystery. The young man has been removed to a hospital in this city and every effort is being made to establish his identity.

OKLAHOMA ELECTION.

Returns From All but Twenty-Five Precincts Tabulated.

Guthrie, Oct. 11.—Out of over 2,100 precincts twenty-five have not made returns. The majority for the constitution is 108,759 and for prohibition, 18,280. Unless the canvassing board decides to secure the returns from the missing precincts these results will be certified to and forwarded on to Washington.

PRESIDENT KILLS BEAR.

Hunt Otherwise on Thursday Was Barren of Results.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 11.—A courier who arrived from the president's camp on the Tensas reported that the president had killed a fine buck, but otherwise the hunt Thursday was barren of result. The animal was brought down from a long distance and fell after the first shot. The condition of the ground is much improved since the rain, and the weather is still cool enough to render the exercise delightful to the president.

Cabinet Completed.

Lima, Peru, Oct. 11.—Dr. German Arenas has been appointed minister of home affairs in the cabinet formed by Dr. G. Washburn. This completes the new cabinet.

SURELY SPEEDY.

Lusitania Beats All Records In Crossing the Atlantic.

New York, Oct. 11.—Four days, nine teen hours and fifty-two minutes out from Queenstown with every transatlantic speed record in her possession the majestic Cunard liner Lusitania swept by Sandy Hook lightship at 1:17 o'clock Friday morning and after a pause off the bar to await daylight and steamed slowly up the harbor to receive the recognition of her right to the title of queen of the sea. Three records were written down in her log book. Two of them were wrestled from the German rivals and one from the swift Lucania of her own line. This was the shortest time from the European port to New York, highest average speed for any transatlantic voyage, 23.99 nautical miles per hour, and longest daily run, 617 nautical miles.
Translated into land miles her speed average for the run was 27.60 miles per hour. Her achievement is a triumph for British shipbuilding and sailors, and may mark the passing of the old fashioned reciprocating engine and beginning of the universal installation of turbines, which made it possible for this ship to beat all records.

The Lusitania in her daily runs exceeded on two days' record the knots previously held by the Deutschland. Counting the days from noon to noon runs was as follows: Sunday 410; Monday, 590; Tuesday, 608; Wednesday, 617; Thursday, 600, and from noon Thursday to 1:17 a. m.
Friday, 324 miles. The new Cunarder is the first four-day boat to enter New York harbor, having completed passage in less than five days, shortening the record held by the Lucania by more than eleven hours. She remained at anchor until 7:12 o'clock, when she crossed the bar and moved slowly and carefully up the new, and as yet uncompleted channel and came to anchor off the quarantine station on Staten Island.

Her arrival was greeted with the hoarse salute of every steam craft then in that vicinity. For an hour the giant ship swung idly at anchor while port physicians made a hasty examination to determine if any contagious diseases were hidden among her many hundreds of passengers. This completed she took up her run to our dock, moving slowly and majestically up the harbor amid the salutes of many steam craft, to which she responded with the hoarse roar of her own siren.

SUBMISSION DATE SET.

Waters-Pierce Receivership to Be Heard Oct. 21.

Austin, Oct. 11.—The court of civil appeals for the Third district has granted the motion of the state for an advance of the Waters-Pierce Oil company receivership case and it was set for submission on Oct. 21. The oil company wanted the ouster and receivership case consolidated.

The hearing before the railroad commission regarding the commission's recent order applying short line passenger rates between points in the state was brought to an abrupt termination shortly after the hearing began by Commissioner Mayfield announcing that the question would be postponed until the November hearing. General passenger agents were here in large numbers to protest against the proposed order and to endeavor to demonstrate to the commission that it was unjust. General Passenger Agent Anderson of the Sunset-Central began his argument, by citing rates from El Paso to Fort Worth, and that under the proposed order the rate from El Paso to Fort Worth would be the same on his line and the Texas and Pacific, although the Katy gets a division of the rate, it being the connecting line between San Antonio and Fort Worth.

Vernon Beggs, secretary of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, has filed an application with the railroad commission for a hearing on the ques-which he claims is bad.

here by the election of Rev. L. C.
Kirkes of Amarillo moderator. Rev.
Henry A. Howard was elected permanent clerk and Dr. P. M. Templeton

Spreading Steadily.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 11.—The cholera in Russia shows no signs of diminishing, but, on the contrary, it is spreading steadily. Every province that suffered from famine last year is now in the grasp of the cholera scourge and every day hundreds of new cases are reported.

Prices Go Still Higher.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The wheat prices on the local exchange touched new high record marks Thursday. May delivery sold up to $1.11 1-2, and December option up to $1.15 1-2. Cold weather in Argentina was the chief reason for such advance in prices.

Will Act as Escort.

Nashville, Oct. 11.—Company B of Confederate veterans will escort President Roosevelt when he arrives here Oct. 22 from the union station to the Hermitage.

Bank Looted.

Wharton, O., Oct. 11.—Bank here was looted by cracksmen. It is said much cash was secured.

DETROIT DEFEATED.

For the Second Time Chicago Is the Victor.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The Detroit American League team suffered its second defeat Thursday at hands of the Chicago Nationals, scoring only one run.
Chicago tallied five times, being the result of solid hitting. Sevier started to pitch for Detroit, but the locals took kindly to his curves and batted him out of the box in four innings.
Kilian then took up the work, and was found for three hits and another run in the fifth.

Detroit tried vainly to break through the Chicago defense. Reulbach pitched strongly in the opening innings, and when he showed signs of weakening in the fifth and sixth innings his teammates came to his rescue with fast double plays.

For some unexplainable reason the game failed to attract the usual large crowd to the grounds. The official attendance figures made the total 13, 114, and the many empty seats in the enlarged bleachers made the gathering appear even smaller than this.
At that, the crowd was more demonstrative than the big outpouring of Wednesday. Reulbach's brilliant pitching in the early innings and the crashing hits of Steinfeldt, Evers and Sheppard roused the Chicago partisans, while the Detroit contingent cheered the more heartily so that the visiting team might not think itself deserted. The play was much faster than on the preceding days.
Only thirteen batters faced Reulbach in the first four innings, while the Chicago hitters lost no time in straightening out Sevier's benders. The first run came in the second inning, when Steinfeldt lined the ball over third base, reaching second on the hit.

Kling sacrificed and Evers sent a double over first base. Steinfeldt scored, but Evers was left when Schulte and Tinker were retired on infield grounders. With Reulbach going at top speed that one run looked good enough to win, but just to make the result certain the Nationals went after Sevier's curves savagely in the fourth. Steinfeldt drove a long fly to left field to start the inning. Jones getting the ball near the boundary, Kling followed with a hard single to right. Evers sent him to third with another drive to the same territory, and Schulte dropped a fly safely in center. Kling scoring. Evers tried to make third on the hit, but was caught and run down by a swarm of Detroit players. Schulte advancing to second. Reulbach cut a low ball over second base, sending Tinker home. Coughlin then caught Slagle's high fly.

Manager Jennings decided that Sevier had failed to make good, so Kilian appeared in the next inning. He was greeted warmly enough, two doubles and a hard single being gleaned off his delivery. Only one run resulted, however, as the hits alternated with outs. Chance secured the first double, and consequently scored the run.

For the next three innings the locals went out in order except in the seventh, when Steinfeldt received a base on balls after two were out. Kling's high twisting foul to Coughlin followed.

Detroit lost their first chance to score in the fifth because Tinker intercepted and turned the catch into a double play. Rossman was first up, and was safe when his hard hit grounder bounced off Tinker's ankle. Coughlin was passed and Schmidt's grounder down the first base line advanced both runners. O'Leary smashed a hard line at Tinker, and the latter jumped and caught the ball and stopped on second base ahead of Coughlin, retiring the side.

Detroit's one run came in the next inning. Kilian made the first clean hit off Reulbach. Jones received a base on balls, and then was doubled up with Scheffer in a lightning play.
Steinfeldt to Evers, to Chance. Crawford and Cobb followed with hits, Kilian scoring on the former, but Slagle went back to the stands and captured Rossman's effort. Another chance to score was lost in the next session. With one down, Schmidt walked, O'Leary struck out and Kilian scratched a hit toward Evers.
Jones was not equal to the emergency, going out, Tinker to Chance. Rossman started the ninth with a hit, but was forced at second by Coughlin, who was forced to remain on first, while Schmidt and O'Leary lifted easily, caught flies.

The teams left for Detroit, accompanied by a small army of enthusiasts. Two games are scheduled for that city. The receipts for Thursday were $16,213.50, divided as follows:
To the National Baseball commission, $1,621.25; to the players, $9,727.50; to each club, $2,431.85.

WILL SELL PRIZE WINNERS.

Mrs. John Gerkin Is Most Successful Handler of Horses.

New York, Oct. 11.—Mrs. John Ger-kin, one of the most successful women workers of horses in this country and the owner of Gerkindale farm, Gravesend, L. I., has decided to sell her stable of prize winners. The sale will include the noted pacers Newsby and Shop Girl, but it will not take place until after the horse show in Madison Square Garden in November. Mrs.
Gerkin's reason for disposing of her stable is that she expects to make a long trip in Europe.

Mrs. Gerkin has been prominent as an exhibitor and horsewoman for a number of years, and she has unusual distinction of having by herself picked her horses in the rough and trained and gaited them. The gelding Newsboy is many times a blue ribbon horse-credited with more than 100 first prizes at the New York and other horse shows. Shop Girl is almost as valuable a harness horse. Other horses in this stable are Brandon and Belmar, the ponies Doncaster Model, Torchlight and Cook Sparrow and the saddle horses Mayo, Red Wood and Surprise.
